

Speakers Profile

LONDON GLOBAL CONVENTION 2012
incorporating
12th International Conference on Corporate Governance
&
3rd Global Summit on Sustainability
10 -13 October, 2012, Marylebone Cricket Club, Lords
LONDON, NW8 8QN, UK

	Lt Gen J S Ahluwalia, PVSM (retd) Lt Gen J S Ahluwalia, PVSM (retd) is the President of the 'Institute of Directors' and of the 'World Environment Foundation' (WEF). A Post Graduate in Electronics Engineering and MBA. He was the Chairman of the Institution of Engineers (India) and President of Delhi Management Association. He retired from the army in Dec 1994, as the Chief Executive and Director General of the 'Corps of Electronics and Mechanical Engineers' Indian Army. He has authored and edited over 20 books covering 'Total Quality Management', 'Environment Management', 'Corporate Governance', 'CSR' and 'Sustainability'.
	Nesar Ahmad Mr. Ahmad is elected as President of the Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI). He practices in the areas of Corporate and Securities Laws, with specialization in Company Secretarial and Representation services, Corporate Laws, Business Restructuring, Merger &amp; Amalgamation, Oppression and Mismanagement, Merchant Banking and other Legal Matters. He has been member of the Expert Committee on Company Law and Competition Policy constituted by ASSOCHAM. He administers the Investor Education &amp; Protection Fund (IEPF) The Bombay Stock Exchange has appointed him as a Member of 'Panel of Arbitrators'
	Sunil Bahri Sunil Bahri is a Global Management Consulting Advisor and is Fellow Chartered Accountant, Fellow Company Secretary, ACSI , Sox Certified and Certified Corporate Directors ( Independent Director ) from WCGC , London . He advises on Business Excellence Models ( EFQM , DQA , Golden Peacock &amp; SKEA ), Business Process Review &amp; Management, Corporate Social Responsibility ,ERP Solutions , Environment Management &amp; Recycling,Forensic Accounting - Corporate Fraud prevention , Franchising , Private Equity Investments and Valuations , Six Sigma and Strategic Management. He is CEO of Kaizensox Consulting FZE, based in Dubai and Vancouver, BC, Canada. He is also a Board Member of Dubai Quality Group.
	Vindi Banga Vindi Banga, Partner, Clayton, Dubilier &amp; Rice (London) He joined the CD&amp;R London office in 2010 as an operating partner. Prior to that he was the Chairman of Hindustan Unilever from 2000 to 2005 after which he was President Global Foods, Home and Personal Care and member of the Unilever plc Executive Board. He has been on the Prime Minister of India's Council of Trade &amp; Industry since 2004. He is a Non-Executive Director on the Boards of Thomson Reuters, Maruti Suzuki India and Marks &amp; Spencer plc. He is currently Chairman of the Confederation of British Industry's Economic Affairs Committee. Mr. Banga is also on the Board of Governors of the Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad as well as the Supervisory Board of the Indian School of Business, Hyderabad. He was awarded the Padma Bhushan by the Prime Minister of India in 2010.

	Mike Barry  Mike Barry, a graduate from University of Sheffield, is Head of Sustainable Business, Marks &amp; Spencer. He was in the specialized team that pioneered the M &amp; S groundbreaking 5 year plan to address a wide range of environmental and social issues. His main tasks cover prioritizing stakeholder expectations of Marks &amp; Spencer; integrating them into corporate strategy; working with shops, business units and suppliers to work out innovations in sustainable products and business activity. In 2011, Mr. Barry was named the newspapers Sustainable Business Innovator of the Year. He is on the board of the World Environment Centre and BiTC's Environment Leadership Team.
	Martin Baxter  Martin Baxter is Executive Director - Policy at the Institute of Environmental Management and Assessment (IEMA). Recent work is focussed on environmental governance, responsibility and accountability. He works in the UK and internationally to support the transition to a low carbon, resource efficient and sustainable economy. Martin is head of the UK delegation to the International Organisation for Standardisation (ISO) on environmental management and represents the UK in Europe in this area of work.
	Sushma Berlia  Mrs. Sushma Berlia is President, Apeejay Styra &amp; Svrana Group; Chancellor, Apeejay Styra University. Mrs. Berlia is a leading women's entrepreneur and industrialist who became the President of the PHD Chamber of Commerce &amp; Industry in 2005, the first-ever woman to head a multi-state apex chamber in India. She plays a leading role in the Indian pharmaceutical industry. Mrs. Berlia has many awards to her credit, including the "Outstanding Businesswomen Award 2008" of the PHDCCI, the 'International Lifetime Achievement Award 2009' of the 'International Congress of Women' in Collaboration with the Govt. of India and the UNIC.
	Prof. Rajendra P. Bharti  Prof. Rajendra P. Bharti is professor and Director (CEO) of Lal Bahadur Shastri Institute of Management Bareilly, UP in India. He is an alumnus and resource person of IIM Ahmedabad. After serving the banking industry in various managerial and training roles he joined LBSIMT Bareilly as Professor and Dean in 2001 and in 2002 he was elevated as the CEO. He is an experienced management trainer with a blend of professional qualifications in Management, Banking, IT and TQM. He has trained CEOs, managers, civil servants and public leaders from around 50 developing countries.
	Lawrence C. Bloom FRICS  Lawrence C. Bloom was head of real estate at the Intercontinental Hotel Group where he created an environmental manual, now in over 5m hotel bedrooms worldwide. He became first Chair of the WEF, Global Agenda Council on Urban Management and is a member of the Corporate Responsibility Advisory Group of the ICAEW.
	Prof. Paul Boyle  Professor Boyle took up the post of ESRC Chief Executive and RCUK International Champion in September 2010. In October 2011 he became President of Science Europe which is based in Brussels and is an association of the 50 major European Research Funding Organizations (RFO) and Research Performing Organizations (RPO). His research focused on population and health geography and he was Director of the ESRC-funded Longitudinal Studies Centre – Scotland. Prior to moving to St Andrews in 1999 he was at the University of Leeds.

	Dr. Lesley Catchpowle Dr. Lesley Catchpowle is an accomplished lecturer with 25 years' experience. She has also worked and lived in China and Hong Kong and lived and researched in South Africa. Lesley is also a member of the Editorial Board of the Association for Accountancy and Business Affairs (AABA).
	Prof. Colin Coulson-Thomas Dr/Prof Colin Coulson-Thomas, an active consultant and member of the business school team at the University of Greenwich, has re-engineered end-to-end healthcare processes, and been the process vision holder of large and complex transformation projects in highly regulated environments. He was the world's first Professor of Corporate transformation, and served for ten years on the Board of Moorfields Eye Hospital. A fellow of seven chartered bodies, Colin is a hospital Governor and author of over 40 books and reports. He has helped over 100 organizations to improve director, board and corporate performance.
	Prof. Barry Curnow Prof. Barry Curnow is a consultants' consultant and Group Analyst based in London. He specialises in strategic advisory, leadership and organisation work and provides coaching, counselling and mentoring for professional service firms and their clients. He was past Chairman of the International Council of Management Consulting Institutes (Chairman, 2003-5). Barry is a former Chairman and Managing Director of Hay-MSL Management Consultants Group. A graduate of the Universities of Exeter (Economics) and London (Organisational Psychology), he teaches at Cass Business School, City University. He is author and consulting editor of The International Guide to Management Consultancy.
	Lord Meghnad Desai Lord Meghnad Desai is an Emeritus Professor of Economics - London School of Economics, UK. He has a weekly column in Indian Express and a fortnightly column in Financial Express, both published in New Delhi, India. He is also frequently invited as an international expert on Indian affairs on Indian and British TV channels. He is a well-known author &amp; writer. His most recent book is The Rediscovery of India ( Bloomsbury).
	Dr. Indrajit Dube Dr. Indrajit Dube is a Specialist in Corporate Laws &amp; Governance. With a career spanning about a decade, he has diversified experience as a practitioner, legal adviser and renowned academician. He has written numerous articles and papers on the subject. He has authored two well-known books on Corporate Governance and Environmental Jurisprudence. He is a visiting faculty in several foreign Universities. He has to his credit several research projects funded by international agencies. He is also a consultant and core team member of the MCA project on Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs.
	Dr. Gilbert Fayl Dr. Gilbert Fayl is the President of The Global Round Table. Formerly, He was Secretary of Foreign Affairs, European Academy of Sciences and Arts. He has served in the EU Commission's diplomatic service. He was a member of core team that conceptually developed the EU RTD Framework Programmes and their evaluation. Earlier, he represented Denmark in international S/T co-operations, as the country's roving ambassador.

	Jessica Fries  Jessica Abridged is Director of the Prince's Accounting for Sustainability Project (A4S) and the International Integrated Reporting Committee (IIRC). She is co-editor of a book comprising case studies on 'connected reporting' and 'connected thinking' by leading academics published in June 2010, "Accounting for Sustainability: Practical Insights". Jessica is a member of the UK Treasury's Sustainability Reporting Steering Committee and of the Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy's Sustainability Committee.
	Miriam Garnier  Miriam Garnier is a certified Director (ASC) &amp; the Chairperson of Finance &amp; Governance. She is a Director of a prominent French insurance company. She has been acting as an investment banker and a strategy consultant for over 25 years, for large multinationals (mainly Crédit agricole, PWC Consulting). Her expertise encompasses the questions of strategy, governance, risk management, and financial engineering. She holds the ESCP Europe Grande Ecole degree, Columbia Business School CSEP, a Master's degree in Diplomacy and Strategy and is a chartered accountant of great acclaim.
	David Gerald  David Gerald, President &amp; CEO SIAS. He founded the Securities Investors Association (Singapore) "SIAS" in 1999, to successfully contest the freezing of shares of a large no. of 172,000 Singapore investors in Malaysian companies by the Malaysian government. Today, he leads, as President &amp; CEO for about 70,000 investors. SIAS, the voice of retail investors in Singapore, actively promotes minority shareholder rights, transparency, corporate governance and investor education. In 2010, he was appointed by Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS) to the Singapore Corporate Governance Council tasked to review the Corporate Governance Code and again in March 2012, he was also appointed by MAS to the Financial Advisory Industry Review (FAIR) panel.
	Sumantra Ghose  Sumantra Ghose is the Director of Cultural Programming Asia House, London, and became Acting CEO in November 2011. Sumi is responsible for the strategic management of Asia House, which includes talks, symposia, performance, exhibitions and film, centred on two annual festivals, the Pan-Asia Film Festival and the Festival of Asian Literature. He has worked and consulted for a range of cultural and educational institutions including Tate, National Portrait Gallery, Frieze, Sotheby's Institute, Richmond University and the American Institute for Foreign Study. He has an MA in History of Art from the Courtauld Institute of Art, University of London.
	Prof. Anthony Giddens  Prof. Anthony Giddens is a Fellow of King's College Cambridge and Emeritus Professor at the London School of Economics. He was Director of the LSE from 1997 to 2003. He is a prolific writer &amp; author. His many books include The Constitution of Society, Modernity and Self-Identity, Beyond Left and Right, The Third Way and Europe in the Global Age. His most recent major work is The Politics of Climate Change. His books have been translated into more than forty languages. He is an international expert on Public Policy.
	Christopher Gleadle  Being curious, creative and independently minded, Christopher has used these gifts to engender sustainability into organizational processes, spanning his extensive commercial career. As founder of the CMG Consultancy, he delivers sustainability analysis, advice and mentoring. Christopher's articles are published globally, and he is author of Sustainable Growth Through Sustainable Business.

	Diwakar Gupta  Mr. Diwakar Gupta has assumed charge as Managing Director &amp; Chief Financial Officer of State Bank of India in 2011. Prior to this, he served as Deputy Managing Director (National Banking), at the Bank's Corporate Centre in Mumbai. A post-graduate in Physics from the University of Delhi. He has over 38 years of varied experience in several spheres of banking, including credit marketing/appraisal, retail banking, HR and technology. He has held prestigious assignments such as Chief General Manager at State Bank of Patiala, Chief General Manager of the SBI's Mumbai Circle &amp; General Manager (HR &amp; Change Management) at Corporate Centre, and Head (Systems) at SBI's Paris Branch.
	Duncan Hames MP  Duncan Hames MP is the Parliamentary Private Secretary to the Deputy Prime Minister of the United Kingdom, Rt Hon Nick Clegg MP. Elected to Parliament in 2010 to serve the Chippenham constituency, near Bath, he became Wiltshire's first Liberal MP in more than 80 years. Duncan takes active interest in renewable and low carbon energy technologies. Before his election to Parliament, Duncan was a senior management consultant with over 10 years of experience. A Chartered Management Accountant (qualified with CIMA), he trained with Deloitte before practising independently since 2005, specialising in finance and governance in the public sector.
	Ursula Hartenberger  Ursula Hartenberger worked on environmental issues for a number of global organizations. She joined RICS in 2006. She took on the role of RICS Global Head of Sustainability in 2009 and is responsible for coordinating the organization's strategic activities in this field. She is a member of a number of prestigious international sustainable development think tanks and stakeholder initiatives and has been closely involved in a series of RICS publications on sustainability and value in the property sector and writes on these issues for external publications and academic journals. She is a prolific writer and commentator.
	Najmal Hasan  Najmal Hasan is Senior Lecturer and MBA Course Leader University of Greenwich. He was Educated at Elphinstone College Bombay, Universities of Leeds, Lancaster and London Business School. He is a well-known Chartered Statistician, and Fellow of Royal Statistical Society. He has worked for Price Waterhouse Coopers and Cabinet Office, British Government. He is Director Asia Business Academy, University of Tampere Business School, Finland. He is Editor, Insight into HRD. His current research subjects include: Green Analytics for Sustainability, Sustainability Skills for Business.
	Richard Heald  Richard Heald is the CEO of the UK India Business Council. It is the premier membership-led organization promoting bilateral trade and investment between India and the UK. For the past 17 years, he has worked for N. M. Rothschild &amp; Sons Limited where he has advised on spin-offs and capital raisings, outbound and inbound M&amp;A as well as the provision of debt and restructuring advice. He has over 30 years experience of the international financial markets, which has been focused on advisory and capital raisings for governments and major corporates across the globe. He is the acting Vice Chairman of Rothschild India, a role which has involved him in acting for numerous UK and Indian corporates. He is a graduate from Oxford University, with a degree in law.

	Rachel Huxley  Rachel Huxley is Chief Executive of Peterborough Environment City Trust. As part of this role, she works closely with Peterborough City Council and other partners to support Sustainable Business. She has extensive experience of working with small and medium sized enterprises, engaging and supporting them to implement resource efficiency measures. She is a judge for Peterborough's environmental business awards, a member of the city's Environment Capital steering group and a programme lead for Peterborough's Single Delivery Plan.
	Dr. Coral Ingley  Dr. Coral Ingley is Associate Professor: Management at AUT University and is founder/Director of the Centre for Corporate Governance in the University's Faculty of Business and Law. She has co-edited the Handbook on Emerging Issues in Corporate Governance (World Scientific Press, 2010) She has chaired and continues to serve as a director on NGO boards of national and international organisations relating to the Asia-Pacific, she has published widely on corporate governance in scholarly journals and is a regular speaker on such topics at international conferences.
	Ritu Jhington  Ritu Jhington is General Manager Corporate Communication and CSR at Cairn India. A Masters in Business Administration, she has over two decades of varied experience working as strategist, marketing solutions and stakeholder engagement. Prior to joining Cairn India, she has worked in senior management positions for Hindustan Times Media Ltd., and Ogilvy and Mather where she has led teams towards strategizing solutions, creating platforms for experiential marketing, defining mechanisms and tools for defined project delivery.
	Dr. Aled Jones FRSA  Dr. Aled Jones FRSA is the first Director of the Global Sustainability Institute (GSI) at Anglia Ruskin University, UK. The GSI's research is focused around personal motivations and systems change set against the challenges of Sustainability. He also chairs a working group on climate finance within the Capital Markets Climate Initiative. He was a founding member of the ClimateWise insurance principles, and a facilitator for the P8 Pensions Group, 12 of the world's largest Public Pension funds.
	Ashok Kapur, IAS (Retd)  Ashok Kapur was an officer of the Indian Administrative Service (1967 Batch). He has served the Government in various capacities, including secy &amp; magistrate of various districts. During 1992- 94, was appointed leader of the Indian Delegation to the UN Conference on Biological Warfare. In September, 1991 was appointed as Joint Secretary, Ministry of Civil Supplies &amp; food &amp; science &amp; technology, Govt of India. Currently he is the Director General of Institute of Directors, India.
	Dr. Sanjeev Kanoria  Dr. Sanjeev Kanoria is a qualified liver transplant surgeon in the UK and received a category 1 PhD from University College London, for innovative research in reducing liver injury and has numerous original papers and awards. He has co-authored the chapter on liver diseases in the well known text book: Bailey &amp; Love, Short Practise of Surgery. He obtained a MBA from London business school, where his thesis on reinventing health care was awarded a distinction. He is setting up a chain of multi-speciality hospitals in India.

	Mervyn E. King SC Mervyn King consults and advises on corporate legal issues. He is recognised internationally as an expert on corporate governance and sustainability. He sits as an arbitrator and as a mediator. He is a founding member of the Arbitration Foundation of Southern Africa and for some eight years was the South African judge at the ICC International Court of Arbitration in Paris. He has acted as an Inspector of Companies and a Commissioner of Inquiries into the affairs of companies. He has chaired many meetings for the compromise of creditors of companies and the rearrangement of shareholders' interests. He has spoken at conferences and lectured on corporate issues in 38 countries. He is a regular speaker on radio and television talk shows and ran his own television series, "King on Governance".
	Nish Kotecha Nish Kotecha is the Founder of Geosansar, a financial inclusion institution delivering banking and financial products and services to the deprived. It is also known in India as the 'One Rupee Bank.' Geosansar now operates from 5 states in India and is the largest operator of its kind. Mr. Nish is the founder and Principal of Sphere Partners an Independent Corporate Finance and Investment boutique. He is on Asian Business Association, London Chamber of Commerce: Deputy Chairman Freeman of the Worshipful Company of World Traders. He is a graduate of the London School.
	Anil Kumar Anil Kumar, MBA, is Serial Entrepreneur, London. He has over 24 years of experience in 'Commodity Space' He is all kinds of ferrous and non ferrous metal right from mining , smelting , processing , trading , hedging , structure and commodity financing . He runs his own mining operations with several thousand workers and has turnover of several billion dollars. He runs a commodity company in UK with a turnover of USD 1000 million per year. He is the first commercial farmer in the world to start growing Bio Diesel in Africa. He is a founding Member of World Economic Forum, Geneva. He regularly contributes to CNBC, Europe on commodities, metals, copper.
	Prof. Poonam Kumar She has over three decades of worldwide experience as an organizational, business and policy consultant; she has been on the Board of several global companies and is also a key strategic advisor to many others from across the world. Prof. Kumar has worked with global companies seeking to understand and tap the potential of the Indian market through a process of strategically monitored phase-wise business incubation. A double post-graduate with degrees in Cost Accountancy and International Economics, Prof. Kumar is an Alumnus of the Harvard Business School and has also completed various Senior Executive Programmes from INSEAD.
	Manoj Ladwa Manoj Ladwa founded MLS Chase in 2002. He is a transactional lawyer and advises clients on their investment and strategic decisions. He specializes in areas like structuring international joint ventures and dispute resolution. He is a recognized expert on foreign direct investments into India, and Indian companies investing into Europe. He is the founder and publisher of www.indiaincorporated.com , premier online business news channel focusing on Indian companies investing overseas. He has authored over 100 articles and publications. He is a co-founder of Saffron Chase. In 2003, he established the London office of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and served as its head for three years. He is a graduate of the London School of Economics.

	Deepak Lalwani OBE Deepak Lalwani is Founder and Director of Lalcap, a London based consultancy specialising in doing business with India. Prior to that he was Director - India at London stock broker, Astaire. He is also a well-known Consultant - India with stock broker W.H. Ireland. An accountant by training and a Chartered FCSI, he is only one of two persons from India to be elected as a Member of The London Stock Exchange. He has authored the influential "India Report", which is distributed to key decision makers globally. He is a regular commentator on India in the media. He is a guest speaker on India at MBA programmes of major UK business schools.
	Jens Laustsen Jens Laustsen served as senior energy efficiency policy analyst at the International Energy Agency, specializing in buildings. He was responsible for developing the IEA recommendations on energy efficiency in buildings and other G8 related buildings work. He now works as an independent energy consultant internationally. He is also Technical Director of the GBPN (Global Building Performance Network - http://www.globalbuildings.org/).
	Dr. Joseph Lee Dr. Joseph Lee is Lecturer in Business Law in Nottingham University Business School. His research interests areas are European Company law; Regulation of financial services and financial markets; Derivatives and hedge funds regulation; Insider dealing, market abuse and money laundering control; Corporate mergers and acquisitions; Cross-border takeovers; Shareholder and stakeholder protection; Auditors' liability; Comparative corporate law and governance; Competition law in relation to financial services; International financial dispute settlement. He did his LLB in 1999 from Buckingham and PhD from London in 2004.
	Dr. Jeremy Leggett Dr. Jeremy Leggett is founder and chairman of Solarcentury, one of the UK's fastest growing renewable energy companies: a designer, manufacturer and installer of solar building products and large solar farms. He is also founder and Chairman of SolarAid, an African solar-lighting social enterprise. He won Entrepreneur of the Year at the New Energy Awards, a CNN Principal Voice, a winner of the US Climate Institute's Award for Advancing Understanding, and was the first Hillary Laureate for International Leadership on Climate Change. He is convenor of the UK Industry Taskforce on Peak Oil and Energy Security. He is Chairman of CarbonTracker, a think-tank on carbon-asset. He is a well-known author of The Carbon War (2000).
	Mark C. Lewis Mark Lewis is a Managing Director, Commodities Research, Deutsche Bank, Germany. He supervises Commodities Research at Deutsche Bank, where he is the Head of Energy Research. His research on Power, Gas and Emissions Markets has been ranked Number 1 by the benchmark Energy Risk survey of Global Commodities Investors in 2011, 2010, 2009, and 2008, a great international honour. He has 14 years' experience as a financial analyst covering European energy markets. Prior to that, he was an academic at London University. He is a British Citizen and holds a BA (First-Class Honours) in Modern Languages and Economics from Sheffield University, an MPhil from Cambridge University, and an MA from London University.

	Richard Little  Richard Little is a consultant specializing in leadership and organizing for sustainability. He initiated the Centre for Leadership and Sustainability at the University of Cumbria (operating from 11/2012 under the direction of Prof. Jem Bendell). He teaches post-graduate programmes in leadership and democracy and is special advisor on public service leadership to the Civil Service of a major Asian city.
	Peter Madden  Peter Madden is Chief Executive of Forum for the Future, a not-for-profit that develops cutting edge sustainability solutions with some of the world's top businesses and government bodies. A leading expert on green issues and futures, Peter works on the strategies and innovations needed to prosper in a low-carbon world. Previously, he worked as Head of Policy at the Environment Agency, as Ministerial Adviser to the British Government, and as Director of the Green Alliance.
	Dr. Cesario Mateus  Cesario Mateus is Senior Lecturer in Finance and Banking at the University of Greenwich Business School, London. Dr. Mateus holds a PhD in Finance from Denmark. Cesario Mateus teach courses in investments, Portfolio Management, Capital Markets, Corporate Finance and international finance as visiting professor at several Universities which includes: Universitat Pompeu Fabra, (Barcelona), Cass Business School, Aston Business School and Brunel University, (United Kingdom), Catholic University of Lisbon, University of Melbourne (Australia), Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul and Unisinos (Brazil).
	Philip Monaghan  Philip Monaghan is Founder and CEO of Infrangilis, a consultancy and think-tank on Resiliency strategy. Originally trained as an economist working on resource regeneration in Northern Ireland. He is a recognized leader with over 18 years of international experience in the fields of economic development, Corporate Social Responsibility, and Environmental Sustainability. His partners and clients include the UN, the Albert Luthuli Centre for Responsible Leadership, ICLEI-Local Governments for Sustainability, Andrew Wainwright Reform Trust, and Unity Trust Bank. He is also author of the acclaimed books 'How Local Resilience Creates Sustainable Societies and Sustainability in Austerity'.
	Paul Moxey  Paul Moxey is Head of Corporate Governance and Risk Management at ACCA's Head Office in London. He is responsible for ACCA's policies on corporate governance and risk management and is a leading contributor to its responses to global developments in this area. Paul held senior positions in industry as company secretary and as group financial controller. Before joining ACCA, he was a consultant specializing in corporate governance in the UK National Health Service (NHS). As a consultant he also ran a NHS internal audit consortium for ISO 9000 accreditation. He is cochairman of the Control and Risk Self-Assessment Forum, a UK based network of CRSA practitioners.

	M. G. George Muthoot  M.G. George Muthoot is Chairman of the Muthoot Group, prominent and active member of a number of professional, social, and religious Organizations and Associations. Under his stewardship the business conglomerate with varied interests in sectors such as plantations, media, healthcare and power generation, grew exponentially. Sh. Muthoot made it a point for Muthoot Group to respond to the needs of the society and work to give back to the community. He received a number of awards and honors in recognition of his leadership community service.
	Abha Negi  Abha Negi is a communications specialist and comes with a rich background of heading several crucial communication assignments. She is trained in "Non-Handicapping Environment" at Asia Pacific Development Centre on Disability (APCD) Bangkok, Thailand. She is also one of the Directors at ARUNIM - that aims at empowering people with disability. She is an avid writer and has written many articles on various governance issues which have been published in leading national dailies.
	Geoffrey Van Orden, MBE, MEP  Geoffrey Van Orden MBE MEP is the leading Member of the European Parliament in the East of England. He is a member and former Vice-Chairman of the Parliament's Foreign Affairs Committee and Conservative Spokesman on Defence &amp; Security. He is Chairman of the Europe-India Chamber of Commerce, a founder member of the Parliament's Friends of India Group, and a member of the European Parliament's India Delegation. He is Vice-Chairman of the European Conservatives &amp; Reformists political group in the European Parliament and the founding President of its think-tank New Direction - The Foundation for European Reform.
	Catherine Parson  Catherine Parson is graduated from a Master in Mathematics and Computer Science, started her career at IBM-Europe. She mastered the art of strategic selling. She led an international career in Europe and the USA. In 2004, she joined the world of recruitment and became an international headhunter working on senior management roles across EMEA and the USA. She is a specialist of cross-borders Senior Executives roles as well as Sales roles for Hyper-growth companies.
	Dr. Jeremy Pearce  Dr Jeremy Pearce has extensive experience in both the public and private sectors. He has worked as a consultant on Corporate Governance and board advisory with the World Bank and KPMG. He has master's degrees in Criminology, International Law and Law and Management and a Doctorate in Legal Science (SJD) from Bond University. He is a guest lecturer in business schools throughout Asia and has published several books on International Law and Corporate Governance, including author of Directors' Powers and Duties in Vietnam. He is a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.
	The Rt. Hon. Eric Pickles MP  Eric Pickles MP was appointed Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government in 2010. Earlier, Mr. Pickles served as the Chairman of the Conservative Party. He has held several important posts, including Shadow Secretary of State, Shadow Minister for Transport and Environment &amp; Vice Chairman of the Conservative Party, with special responsibility for Local Government. He has been a distinguished Member of Parliament since 1992. He was educated at Greenhead Grammar School, Keighley, and Leeds Polytechnic.

	Ajay Poddar  Ajay Poddar is the Managing Director, Synergy Environics, India. He is a pioneer in inventing radiations in a built environment. He is also a Director Suvidha Parklift, a company which manufactures Automatic Multilevel Car Parking systems in India. He is a social worker of repute in India. As Chairman, Society for Integrated Development of the Himalayas (Sid). He has addressed national and international forums in more than 20 countries worldwide on management practices, Health and Environics. His pioneering book 'Empower Yourself – New Life Solutions for Health and Well Being' was published by Penguin in 2007.
	Sunil Prasad  Sunil Prasad has worked in the Brussels based world's largest trade union organization, the International Trade Union Confederation since 1986 in different capacity such as head of Asia Desk, Director of Commonwealth Trade Union Group. He is an Alumni of the ILO's International Institute of Labour Studies (Switzerland). He is the founder Secretary General of the Europe India Chamber of Commerce (EICC). The Chamber has been making telling impact in the news and media in Europe and India by raising issues which are important for EU-India trade and economic relations. He is also the Secretary of the Friends of India Group in the European Parliament.
	Lord Diljit Singh Rana M.B.E (UK)  Lord Diljit Rana is a successful businessman in Belfast, Northern Ireland. He is Chairman and Chief Executive of Andras House Group, Northern Ireland's biggest hotels and hospitality organization. Born at Sanghol in Punjab, Lord Rana has lived in Northern Ireland since 1966. His achievements include: He was appointed to the House of Lords in 2004. This dialogue ended 30 years' of terrorism. He was elected President of GOPIO International in 2009. Elected President of the Northern Ireland Chamber of Commerce, the region's biggest business organization. Lord Rana has actively promoted business, education, political and cultural links between India and Northern Ireland.
	Dr. T. Ramachandru, IAS  Dr. T. Ramachandru joined Indian Administrative Service (IAS) in the year 1984. He took off as Principal Secretary, Industries Department, Government of Odisha on 18 Nov 2010. Prior to this, he was working as Secretary, Ministry Of Defence, Government of India. He plays a crucial role in leading the organization in this diversified business environment that demands quick decisions and fast delivery of results. He is also instrumental in forging trade relations with inland and foreign investors for giving them confidence of doing business in Odisha
	Dr. Frank-Jürgen Richter  Dr. Frank-Jürgen Richter is the Chairman of Horasis, the Global Visions Community. Horasis is a top independent international organization committed to enacting a Sustainable Future. Dr. Richter was earlier Director of the World Economic Forum, Davos. Under his leadership, the Forum's Summits in Asia part of 'Davos' have evolved to facilitate the exchange of expertise between leaders in business, government, and civil society. He has studied and worked in Tokyo and in Beijing where he developed European Multinationals' China operations. He has addressed the World Economic Forum, Brookings Institute, Harvard University, Beijing University, Royal Institute of International Affairs etc.

	Andrea Scafidi Andrea Scafidi is an Italian lawyer specializing in commercial and corporate matters, with specific regard to corporate governance issues. Since 2007 he has been Secretary General of “Nedcommunity” (the Italian association of Non-Executive and Independent Directors). He is regular speaker at conferences and seminars and author of various publications on corporate governance and company law matters.
	Dr. Thomas Scheiwiller Dr. Thomas Scheiwiller is a Director and the Global Head of Clients and Industries of AccountAbility. Holds a PhD in Physics from the Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich. Prior to joining AccountAbility, Thomas was Global Managing Partner of Sustainability Advisory Business at PricewaterhouseCoopers. Thomas has worked across business sectors within Pharmaceuticals &amp; Life Science, Retail &amp; Consumer Goods, and Financial Services. Thomas has been a guest lecturer at the Universities of Basel, Zurich, and St. Gallen. He was the founder and host of the regular Risk Roundtable for Corporate Risk Officers in Switzerland.
	P Uma Shankar, IAS P Uma Shankar is secretary, Ministry of Power, Govt. of India, He has served as MD of UP State Sugar Corporation, he also served as executive chairman and MD of Rural Electrification Corporation Limited. He has about 30 years of leadership experience in Government spanning revenue, law and order, development work, rural infrastructure, finance, housing &amp; urban development, industries municipal affairs and relief. He holds a Masters Degree of Science &amp; Mathematics from IIT, Madras and M.Sc in social Policy and Planning in Developing Countries from London School of Economics.
	Alok Sharma MP Alok Sharma MP for Reading West, UK was elected in May 2010 as the Member of Parliament. In 2012, he was appointed Vice Chairman of the Conservative Party with responsibility for engagement with ethnic minority communities. He is a Chartered Accountant by profession and after his studies worked for 17 years in the banking sector based out of London, Stockholm and Frankfurt, advising clients on a range of corporate finance including M&amp;A in India. He holds a degree in Applied Physics with Electronics, and is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts. He was born in India and grew up and went to school in Reading.
	Richard Shipperbottom FRSA Richard Shipperbottom is a successful entrepreneur and owner of successful global business advisory firm Applied Acumen. He has worked with a large number of corporate management teams over the last 20 years across Europe, the US and India, specialising mainly in profit enhancing rapid change initiatives. In addition to working with globally renowned clients who include SAB Miller, McDonalds, Cannon, Tata, Invensys, Smurfit and many others, Richard has been a senior manager of a Honda works racing team, author, inventor and holder of the patent of the world’s first Digital Book before Amazon, company secretary and a fully qualified canine hydrotherapy expert.

	Jon Sibson Jon Sibson, a partner in PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, has been appointed as Dean of the Business School at the University of Greenwich. An experienced senior leader in both the public and private sectors, Jon Sibson began his career in the Civil Service. He served in the Home Office and the Cabinet Secretariat for 14 years, before joining PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in 1994. He became a partner in PwC in 1997. His international experience includes three years leading a project finance business in Asia, while living and working in Singapore.
	S.Y. Siddiqui Mr. S.Y. Siddiqui, Chief Operating Officer Admn (HR, Finance, IT, Company Law &amp; Legal), Maruti Suzuki India. He is responsible for Corporate HR for Suzuki Powertrain and Suzuki Motorcycles. He is Part Time Director on The Board Of Suzuki Motorcycles and a special Invitee on the Board of Suzuki Powertrain India. Presently, he is the all India President of National HRD Network. A Post Graduate in HRM, Mr. Siddiqui has a track secured of around 33 years in the HR &amp; Business Roles of good Indian Corporates as well as top MNCs such as: Escorts Limited, DCM Group, New Holland Tractors India (FIAT GROUP).
	Paul Simpson Paul Simpson is co-founder and CEO of the Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP), an independent non-profit organization that exists to prevent dangerous climate change, protect our natural resources and create long-term prosperity through the efficient allocation of capital. Paul sits on the World Economic Forum Global Agenda Council on Measuring Sustainability, the board of EIRIS, the advisory panel of Guardian Sustainable Business, and on the steering committee of Forest Footprint Disclosure. He holds a BSc in Business and Finance from City University, London and an MSc in Responsibility and Business Practice at the University of Bath (with distinction).
	Mohini Daljeet Singh Mohini Daljeet Singh is Chief Executive, Max India Foundation. She is a well recognized social worker and educationist and is widely travelled. She started her social service journey by volunteering as a young student with Mother Teresa's Home "Prem Niwas", in Lucknow. She joined Max India to set up Max India the social service arm of the Max India Group of Companies. Under her leadership Max India has won the following awards for Best CSR Practices: The 6th Bombay Stock Exchange Award, 5th INDY'S Award, IOD's prestigious Golden Peacock Global Award for CSR. As an Army officer's wife, she has also worked extensively on Jawan's family welfare schemes.
	Rakesh Singh Shri Rakesh Singh is President, Institute of Cost Accountants of India. He has been the Chairman of the Cost Accounting Standards Board of Institute. During his chairmanship, he brought out the "Generally Accepted Cost Accounting Principles" (GACAP) for use by the professionals. He has served as the Technical Advisor, Confederation of Asia and Pacific Accountants (CAPA) and Nominee on Government Accounting Standards &amp; Advisory Board (GASAB).
	Ranjit Singh Mr Ranjit Singh is a Mechanical Engineer at Maruti Suzuki since 1994. After 5 years of enriching experience in Business strategy function, he joined CSR department as Assistant General Manager. He is instrumental in formulating CSR policy of Maruti Suzuki and undertaking several CSR initiatives such as community development work at Manesar, National Road Safety Mission, Employee Volunteering Programme and Sustainability Reporting. He is also a certified assessor for CII-ITC Sustainability Awards.

	Manoj Sonawala  Graduate in Commerce and Law and Associate Member of Institute of Company Secretaries and Administrators, UK, London. (AICSA, UK) Institute of Company Secretaries of India, New Delhi. Handled Legal, Secretarial and Corporate Compliance portfolios for various listed companies in Forbes, CRB and Simplex Group. Completed Certificate Course on Independent Directors conducted by S. P. Jain Institute of Management &amp; Research jointly with Bombay Chartered Accountants' Society. Presently working as General Manager - Corporate &amp; Company Secretary with Tata Services Limited.
	Michael Spanos  Michael Spanos is the Co-Founder and Managing Partner of EuroCharity, where for the past seven years he has specialized in the fields of Sustainability, Corporate Social Responsibility, Accountability and Business Excellence. He has been working on a wide range of industries mainly in Sustainability &amp; risk management and consulting. He held senior positions in Venture Capital Industry and closed-end Funds engaged in business plans for private investments, company feasibility and valuation, business training and project management. He holds an MBA and a diploma in Production Engineering and Management. He knows English, French and Greek.
	Dr. Alex Stojanovic  Dr. Alex Stojanovic is Head of Department of Accounting and Finance and Director of Centre for Governance, Risk and Accountability at University of Greenwich Business School. Formerly a founding member and Director of Research at Bradley Financial, a City of London based equity research/financial consulting agency, he gained a first class degree in economics from Belgrade University, and an MBA (Finance) and a Ph.D. (Finance) from City University (Cass) Business School, London. His current research interests and recent consulting projects relate to risk management and governance and sovereign debt rescheduling.
	Jennifer Sundberg  Jennifer Sundberg is the Managing Director of 'Board Intelligence', a business she has led since its inception in 2002. A member of the European Corporate Governance Institute, she is a regular speaker at industry conferences and seminars and has led over 60 strategy and governance assignments, with well-known clients including Aviva, Compass, Easy Jet, The Economist, E.O.N, Laird, RBS and Universal Music. In 2005, she was named The Times' 'Young Business Woman of the Year' and in 2007 was listed in Management Today's top under 35, in recognition of the contribution Board Intelligence has made to its clients. She holds an MA in Classics from Cambridge University and is a graduate of The Judge Business School.
	Dr. Charles Tannock MEP  Charles was educated at Oxford and the Middlesex Hospital Medical School, London. He is a Member of the Royal College of Psychiatrists. Before being elected to the European Parliament in 1999, Charles worked for several years as a Consultant Psychiatrist in London and was a Senior Lecturer at University College Hospital. He is the European Parliamentary adviser to the UK Overseas Territory Association. He was appointed a Commissioner for Human Rights of the UK Conservative Party in November 2011. In the European Parliament, Charles is Foreign Affairs and Human Rights Spokesman for the UK Conservative delegation.

	Ola Ullsten  Ola Ullsten is presently Co-Chair of the World Commission on Forests and Sustainable Development. He was a member of the Swedish parliament from 1964 to 1982, and served simultaneously as the Minister for International Development Cooperation from 1976-78 and as Minister of Immigration (1977-78), then as Minister of Foreign Affairs (1979-1982). He was elected leader of the Swedish Liberal Party (1978-82) and later the same year became the Prime Minister. He is the Chair of the OAC International Advisory Council, a senior fellow at the International Institute for Sustainable Development in Winnipeg and a member of the Board of Directors of the Woods Hole Research Center, Massachusetts, USA.
	Dr. Wim Vandekerckhove  Dr. Wim Vandekerckhove is Senior Lecturer in Organisational Behaviour at the University of Greenwich Business School. He holds a PhD in Applied Ethics from Ghent University (Belgium). He has published on whistleblowing, business ethics, socially responsible investment, and global ethics in more than 40 journal articles and book chapters. He has also authored and co-authored seven books, including 'Whistleblowing and Organizational Social Responsibility' (2006 Ashgate) and 'Whistleblowing and Democratic Values' (2011 International Whistleblowing Research Network, free ebook). He is associate editor for the journal Philosophy of Management.
	Baroness Sandip Verma  Baroness Verma was born in Punjab, India, moving to the UK with her parents at the age of one. She attended local schools and university in Leicester for psychology and business. A successful business woman Lady Verma started her first business at the age of 19 in high fashion, supplying high street multiples. In 2000, she changed her business to the service sector and went into auxiliary care. She joined Conservative Party in 1999. In 2006, she was raised to the peerage as Baroness Verma of Leicester in the County of Leicestershire. She was Opposition Whip from 2006 – 2010 and then Government Whip following the 2010 General Election. Prior to becoming Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for DECC in September 2012, Baroness Verma was Spokesperson for Cabinet Office, International Development, Women and Equalities and Business Innovation and Skills.
	Peter L. Walker FCIPR  Peter combines his role as senior consultant of the PIELLE Consulting with that of being the partner responsible for PIELLE's development and work in the non 'BRIC' emerging markets of the world. At PIELLE he leads multi-disciplinary teams for a wide range of public and private sector international and multi-national clients on public affairs, public (health) education, corporate communication, environmental impact and sustainable development studies. He joined PIELLE from BOC Group where he was secretary of the Public Policy Committee of the Board. Under his leadership, PIELLE has initiated and implemented award winning public health and public policy education programmes in India and Pakistan. He was Chairman of the Nigeria British Chamber of Commerce from 2007 to 2011.
	Dr. Graham Wilson  Dr. Graham Wilson has worked for 17 years with organizational leaders, and their people, helping them create a vision of what their world could be like and to achieve it. He believes in the enormous potential of people and loves to see them discover and tap into this throughout their life. A futurist and strategist, his work originated in organization development, was shaped by a PhD in behavioral science, and training as a psychotherapist, sports coach, and minister. Chaplain to QinetiQ; leadership mentor to the Stockholm Environment Institute, Oxford; author of eight books and many essays.

	Andrew Wilson An economist, Andrew has a 20-year track record in consulting on issues of sustainable development. He is a Director at Corporate Citizenship, a specialist global corporate responsibility consultancy. His work involves advising senior managers in a range of multinational companies helping them to develop a strategic approach to corporate citizenship. Andrew has addressed a number of prestigious international conferences organized by the United Nations, the International Association for Business and Society, and the Business Institute for Sustainable Development in Korea etc.
	Carl Woolf International Trade Adviser, Carl Woolf, spent 15 years with the British Council in the UK, the Far East and Europe, before moving to the City of London to set up international programmes with Lloyd's Brokers in Brazil, India and China. Carl then worked as an International Development Manager for professional bodies such as the Institution of Engineering &amp; Technology before going into the upstream oil &amp; gas industry, working with technical committees from Shell, BP, ExxonMobil, Total, ConocoPhillips and Saudi Aramco. Carl joined the UKTI London team in 2010 and specializes in the C21st energy mix.

Organized by

Institute of Directors
M-52, Greater Kailash – Part II, New Delhi – 110048, India
Tel: - +91 11 41638719, Fax +91 11 41008705
Website – www.iodonline.com