Day One - 26 April 2019

Mr. R. Srinivasan, Regional Director, Institute Of Directors, Chennai Region, welcomed the participants for the 231st Batch of Masterclass for Directors and gave an introduction on the agenda and the topics to be covered for the three days course.

The first session for the day was delivered by Mr. R. Sridharan, Past President, Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI) on ‘Companies Act 2013 and Other Corporate laws: An Overview’. Mr. Sridharan enlightened the participants about the types of Companies under the act and their respective definitions. He briefed them about the important documents of a Company like Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association and highlighted the different modes of finance for an organisation. He educated the participants about the Annual Returns to be filed as a compliance requirement under the act and also the procedural aspects of conducting the Annual General Meeting and Extraordinary General Meetings.

Mr. Sridharan taught about the items to be placed in the Board meeting and important issues such as the quorum, power of the Boards and the decisions that could be taken only at the Board meeting. He briefed about the Dividend Declaration Policy and the key functions of the National Company Law Tribunal. While presenting about the general compliances and the standards followed, he gave interesting anecdotes and real life situations and made it interactive and lively.

The second session for the day was on ‘Corporate Governance: Enhancing Stakeholder Value’. It was handled by Mr. Suresh Krishnan, Senior Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer, Chola MS General Insurance Company Ltd. He started with the concept of Corporate Governance that was mentioned in the Arthashastra, which speaks about the duties of a King. He gave a glimpse on the historical background of Corporate Governance on the various Committees constituted and mentioned the pitfalls of not having Corporate Governance. He gave few case studies on the scandals that shook the Corporate world and briefed on the Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements (LODR). He chronicled the key recommendations of the Kotak Committee on Composition and Role of the Board of Directors, Independent Directors, Board Committees etc. and other important recent amendments.

Mr. S. Santhanakrishnan, Managing Partner, PKF Sridhar and Santhanam, LLP, presented the session on ‘Corporate Sustainability: Environmental, Social and Economic Responsibility’. He mostly shared his personal experiences and achievements with respect to the social initiatives that he undertook and also the importance of environmental and social responsibilities of the organisations that will impact the society at large. The Session was lively and interactive and the participants took keen interest on the topic.

Mr. Gopal Krishna Raju, Chartered Accountant and an Insolvency Professional, delivered the final session for the day on ‘Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code: Guidance for Directors and Promoters’. It was an engaging session with practical situations that discussed about the positive impact of the new law that is one of the major reforms that happened recently. He spoke about the Insolvency process in detail and the ways in which the Committee of Creditors lead by the Insolvency Professional handles the calm period of 180 days after the CIRP process is initiated. He also briefed about the impact under the law in case of Related Party transactions and how the legislation has forced the Companies to be cautious in their approach about debt repayment and make it a seamless process for all stakeholders in case of an Insolvency. The Session was extremely interesting for the participants and the way it was handled to simplify the concepts for them was appreciated.
